

ENGL 1007 Course Move	Learning Objectives	Recommended Task Objectives
Collecting and Curating	Determine principles of search, selection and organization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Create a search strategy that: identifies key terms (to use in search) and defines the scope of the project - Examine how archives are assembled, managed, controlled - Determine provenance of sources - Develop ethical practices for curation and representation - Acknowledge and document use of sources
	Create a purposeful assemblage using collected artifacts for your audience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Explore and create connections among collected data or artifacts - Demonstrate the significance of your assemblage through the organization of collected artifacts and/or data